Re James Mills and wife.

Mr. Pfeiffer requested that I endeavor to locate a family named Dey living in the vicinity of the Mills home and ascertain if Mrs. Mills had 'phoned from their place on the night of the murder.

There was no telephone listed under the name of Day or Dey in the May 1922 issue of the telephone book, which was located near the Mills residence. However, there is and was at that time a Mrs. Sarah Dey who lived at No. 51 Carman Street in the same house with Mrs. Millie L. Opie, the dressmaker who used to receive the 'phone messages for Mrs. Mills.

Respectfully yours,

David Thompson
